Robbi Zeck ND is the developer of Aromatic Kinesiology®, an empowering system of energetic medicine, which blends the harmonizing influences of essential oils with gentle healing techniques that balance the emotions, transform stress and create wellbeing.

Her pioneering work on the psychological benefits of essential oils and how they affect the integration of emotional experiences is beautifully portrayed in her deeply moving workshop series based on her inspirational book The Blossoming Heart. Now in its second printing, the book was translated into Mandarin and Spanish in 2006.

Robbi is dedicated to inspiring people to find their own voice through discovering their passion, vision and purpose and assisting them to become the creative force in their own lives. The Blossoming Heart workshops are all designed to offer tools, strategies and support for creating a vision for successful living and wellbeing.

Her seminars and retreats have been conducted in France, Ireland, Indonesia, China, Hong Kong, Taiwan, USA, Australia and New Zealand. Robbi is committed to opening the way for people to create the best possible future for themselves, sharing in her vision for a healthier, joyfully enriched life for all.

Listen to comments about this work:-

I was very touched and inspired by AK One. I was very pleasantly surprised because I thought it would simply be learning techniques and something about essential oils. I never expected it to be so personally transformative. Terri Conroy Kinesiologist Clifden Ireland

Thank you Robbi for sharing your wealth of knowledge & spirit with such generosity & charm. The workshop was a powerful, transformative experience for me and, I also witnessed this in others. It far surpassed anything I may have anticipated. Anthony Dennett LMT Tampa Florida
