

Blossoming Heart Seminars

Connect ♥ Flourish ♥ Shine

Begin the journey of awakening your heart
Create the best possible conditions for your body to heal itself
Be supported and inspired by the power of essential oils Learn empowering methods to help your clients achieve healing and balance

Embark on a healing journey of personal renewal that will enhance the spirit, look and feel of your life using essential oils as potent aromatic anchors, to restore balance and facilitate positive change.

The Blossoming Heart Seminars embrace beauty, transformation and balance, focusing on how to influence your physical health, your state of mind and your connection to spirit through exploring aromatherapy from an emotional perspective.

When emotions are harmonised with the effects of essential oils, strong intention & genuine heart, the body gently responds as it was designed – as a self-restoring network. The key to wellbeing is to allow self-care to become an important practice in your daily life. Influenced by the powers of scent, your energy flow and your lifestyle will be refreshed and invigorated as you learn new skills for your own development and also for those whose lives you touch.

Robbi Zeck ND with her extensive background in the healing arts and a Kinesiology practice spanning 30 years, is the developer of Aromatic Kinesiology®, an empowering system of energetic medicine, which blends the harmonizing influences of essential oils with gentle healing techniques that balance the emotions, transform stress and create wellbeing.

Her pioneering work on the psychological benefits of essential oils and how they affect the integration of emotional experiences is beautifully portrayed in her deeply moving workshop series based on her inspirational book The Blossoming Heart. Now in its second printing, the book was translated into Mandarin and Spanish in 2006.

Robbi is dedicated to inspiring people to find their own voice through discovering their passion, vision and purpose and assisting them to become the creative force in their own lives. The Blossoming Heart Seminars are all designed to offer tools, strategies and support for creating a vision for successful living and wellbeing.

Her seminars and retreats have been conducted in France, Ireland, Indonesia, China, Hong Kong, Taiwan, Canada, USA, New Zealand and Australia. Robbi is committed to opening the way for people to create the best possible future for themselves, sharing in her vision for a healthier, joyfully enriched life for all.
